All personal property will be taken from the inmate except their personal undergarments they are wearing and placed in the inmate's stored property.

CLASSIFICATION

Classification is a process by which a security level is established for each individual inmate. Each inmate is classified using information resources such as criminal, medical and social histories.

Classification is done by a Classification Specialist. They review each inmate's housing assignment to ensure proper placement for security and protection. All housing assignment changes must have prior approval. Inmates may request a housing assignment change by submitting an Inmate Request Form to the Sergeant or their designee.

The classification section is responsible for the assignment of trustee inmates.

PRISON RAPE ELIMINATION

THE WALTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE IS COMMITTED TO EMPHASIZING A ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY OF THE SEXUAL ABUSE OF INMATES, EITHER BY STAFF OR OTHER INMATES.

The Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (PREA, P.L. 108-79) was enacted by Congress to address the problem of sexual abuse of persons in the custody of U.S. correctional agencies. The Act applies to all public and private institutions that house adult or juvenile offenders and is also relevant to community-based agencies. It addresses both inmate-on-inmate sexual abuse and staff sexual misconduct.

Inmates who are victims of sexual abuse/assault have the option to report the incident to any staff member, volunteer, Programs Manager or Chaplain. The inmate may also contact the Operations Lieutenant or Director of Jail Operations via an inmate request.

The reporting methods an inmate can utilize are:

1. Verbal Reporting
2. Inmate Request
3. Informal Grievance
4. Formal Grievance
5. National Sexual Abuse Hotline -1-800-656-4673

If you believe you are the victim of an assault or abuse, you should immediately contact a staff member. Staff shall then:

- a. Notify medical staff
- b. Notify the appropriate investigating agency

Inmates who are the victim of a sexual assault shall be provided prompt and appropriate medical and mental health treatment.

Avoiding Sexual Assault/Abuse

- Carry yourself in a confident manner at all times. Do not permit your emotions (fear/anxiety) to be obvious to others.
- Do not accept gifts or favors from others. Most come with strings attached to them.
- Do not accept an offer from another inmate to be your protector.
- Find a staff member with whom you feel comfortable with to voice your fears and concerns.
- Be alert. Do not use contraband substances such as drugs. These can weaken your ability to stay alert and make good judgments.
- Be direct and firm if others ask you to do something you do not want to do. Do not give mixed messages to the inmates regarding your wishes for sexual activity.
- Choose your associates wisely. Look for people who are involved in positive activities like educational programs, self-help programs, or religious services.
- Trust your instincts. If you sense that a situation may be dangerous, it probably is. If you fear for your safety, report your concerns.

The DHO shall submit this written decision to the Jail Director his designee for final approval. The inmate shall receive a copy of the written decision. be able to properly represent him or herself. Staff assistance is limited to helping the inmate understand the disciplinary process.

- G. The inmate shall have the opportunity to request witnesses or present documentary evidence on his/her behalf, unless doing so would be irrelevant, redundant or would endanger the safety of the inmate.
- H. The inmate will be present during the hearing unless he/she waives the right in writing or is excluded for reasons of facility security.
- I. Law enforcement agencies and the court system will handle all violations of county, state or federal laws made by an inmate. This does not exclude him/her from the disciplinary report process.

An inmate can appeal the decision of the DHO to the Director via a Formal Grievance. To appeal a DHO decision an inmate must submit a formal grievance within five (5) working days of the DHO's decision. The grounds for the appeal must be clearly stated.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Prior to a grievance being filed, an inmate request must first be submitted to try and resolve the situation unless the inmate is appealing a disciplinary decision. A response from the initial inmate request must be received by the inmate before proceeding with the grievance process. An inmate may file an informal grievance after the initial inmate request is received if they feel they need further remedy or appeal. If the inmate receives an unsatisfactory response they may reply to submit a formal grievance.

- 3) Staff will have fifteen (15) days in which to answer the grievance and return a response to the inmate.
- 4) At any level of the administrative process, including the final level, if the inmate does not receive a response within the time allotted for the reply, including any properly noticed extension, the inmate may consider the absence of a response to be a denial at that level.

Any inmate caught introducing contraband will not be allowed to be reinstated as a trustee unless approved by the Director of Jail Operations or designee.

RESTRAINT OF PREGNANT INMATES

Restraints may not be used on an inmate who is known to be pregnant during labor, delivery, and postpartum recovery, unless the corrections official makes an individualized determination that the inmate presents an extraordinary circumstance, except that:

1. If the doctor, nurse, or other health care professional treating the inmate requests that restraints not be used, the corrections officer, or other officer Accompanying the pregnant inmate shall remove all restraints; and
2. Under no circumstances shall leg, ankle, or waist restraints be used on any pregnant inmate who is in labor or delivery.

3. Leg and ankle restraints that restrain the legs close together may not be used when the inmate is required to walk or stand.
4. Use of leg, ankle, or waist restraints is subject to the provisions of subparagraph

In addition to the specific requirements of the above paragraphs, any restraint of an inmate who is known to be pregnant must be done in the least restrictive manner necessary in order to mitigate the possibility of adverse clinical consequences.

COMMISSARY

The WCJ provides inmates with commissary services. Inmates with money in their account, and who are eligible, may draw on their account for commissary purchases.

Commissary orders are taken and goods issued on a set schedule, barring holidays, posted in the pods on inmate channel (2). Commissary orders will be made by using the kiosk; placing your commissary order before 8:00 am, on Tuesday morning. Inmates are able to place commissary orders seven (7) days per week. The maximum purchase for food orders is $100 per week. The maximum purchase for hygiene items is $100 per week.

Money orders must be received the working day prior to the scheduled commissary order day in order for the inmate to have access to the funds that week.

Confinement and Medical unit inmates can be given a commissary order form upon request if they are unable to use the tablet or the phone. The inmate should indicate the items and quantities desired on the sheet. The inmate MUST sign the form or the order will not be filled. Completed order forms should be placed on TOP of the mail box located in the pod.

Failure to follow the instructions for filling out the commissary form will void the order.

COMMISSARY ISSUING PROCEDURES:

The following procedures will be followed when commissary orders are distributed to the inmates:

1. The Housing Officer will notify the pod that commissary will be distributed.
2. Inmates will be in full uniform to receive their orders.
3. Inmates will remain on their assigned bunk until their name is called.
4. The orders will be verified in front of a commissary representative.
5. The commissary representative will note any shortages.

NOTE: Inmates who do not verify their order in front of the deputy will not receive any credit or replacement for missing items.

6. The inmate and the commissary representative shall sign the form upon verification of the order.
7. The inmate shall receive a copy of the signed order form.
8. Shortages noted by the commissary representative deputy will be handled in one of the two following ways:
 - a) If the item is readily available at the facility, the Commissary Representative will replace the item by the end of the following workday; or,
 - b) Items will be refunded.

9. Inmates who are not available to receive their commissary order at the time of distribution due to an authorized absence (e.g. court, doctor, etc.) will receive it from a commissary representative by the end of the following workday.
10. Any inmate released from custody prior to the receipt of his/her commissary will have five (5) working days from the date of delivery to claim the order. They may pick up the order Monday through Friday between 8 am and 4 pm, excluding holidays. They must sign the invoice to accept the order. MONEY

All money an inmate possesses when booked into the facility will be deposited in, and credited to, an account established for the inmate and a receipt will be given to the inmate for that amount. When an inmate is released from custody, a debit card will be issued for the balance of money remaining in the account. When an inmate is released or transferred to another facility or agency a check will be issued.

Checks on the inmate's person at booking will be placed in the inmate's stored property, unless they have been received from another agency. If the check is received from another facility, the inmate will place his/her signature on the back of the check in order for it to be placed in the inmate's trust fund account.

Inmates can receive money while incarcerated. A money order may be mailed to the inmate in an envelope and should be addressed to the inmate with ID # and "attention inmate welfare" clearly printed on the front. WCJ will only accept money orders addressed to the inmate or checks from other correction facilities. We will not accept cash or payroll checks. Money orders may be delivered to the front desk at the facility during normal business hours. Cash/debit cards may be used to place money on an inmate's account by using the kiosk in the lobby of the facility or by going online to www.commissarydeposit.com. Inmate funds will not be transferred from one inmate's account to another inmate's account.

Any money found on an inmate during incarceration will be confiscated as contraband and deposited in the facility's Inmate Welfare Account.

IDENTIFICATION WRISTBAND

It is the policy of this facility that each inmate wears a jail identification wristband while incarcerated. This ID wristband is issued to each inmate during the booking process. This wristband serves multiple purposes for facility personnel and the inmate. Any inmate who does not wear their wristband at all times will be subject to disciplinary action. If an inmate experiences a problem with the wristband and it needs replacing, he/she should notify the detention deputy or shift supervisor by submitting an inmate request form. Inmates who do not immediately report the problem or who tamper with the wristband will be subject to disciplinary action. Such action includes, but is not limited to, loss of commissary, visitation, telephones and loss of other programs as well as a charge to the inmate for the replacement cost of the wristband ($10.00).

There is a limit of two (2) books allowed to be kept by the inmate at any one time. One religious book (soft cover) does not count toward this total. If not ordered and received directly from a publisher or bookstore, all religious books have to be provided by the Inmate Program's section. Any exceptions have to be approved by the Programs Manager. All books received (minus non-issued religious books) become the property of the WCJ inmate library. Inmates who believe they have been charged fees inappropriately may contest the charges by submitting a grievance within five (5) working days (not including holidays and weekends) of receiving notice of the charge(s).

Policy is defined by Florida Statutes 951.032, 951.033 and Florida Model Jail Standards 2.14.

FILING A FALSE REPORT

Filing a false police report is prohibited in Florida by statute. According to Florida Statute 817.49, anyone who knowingly misleads the authorities or who causes someone else to mislead the police about the commission of a crime is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. The statute covers those who not only lie to the police, but those who report crimes that were not actually committed as well as misinformation about crimes that were.

According to Florida Statute 775.082(d), under Florida law, the maximum penalty for a person convicted of providing a false report to law enforcement about any crime, a first degree misdemeanor, is a one-year prison term and a fine of $1,000. However, for a person convicted of providing a false report about a capital felony, the maximum penalty is a five-year prison term and a fine of $5,000. The severity of the prison term and fine given, however, is up to the discretion of the sentencing judge and varies depending on the facts of the case, and the prior criminal record of the defendant. Florida Statute 775.082 (2) further orders the defendant to pay court costs.
